MEMORANDUM FOR: General Cutler
The White House

Thank you very much for your note of February 2, 1954, enclosing a letter from [redacted] in which he suggests that [redacted] might be of assistance to the Government.

STAT
STAT

Our people have gone over [redacted] biographical information thoroughly and it really does not seem that he could be of any particular value to us.
He seems to be typical of a great many White Russian emigres who, although of the best of good will, do not have much to offer us. This man has been out of Russia since 1921, having escaped at the age of 19. In the intervening years he seems to have had no intelligence or related experience.

STAT

We do appreciate having this brought to our attention.

STAT

[redacted] is a nice
old gent who made some dough and retired to one of the most beautiful spots in the world, near Phoenix.

I've vacationed at [redacted]

[redacted], and I wish to God I was there on a horse right now.

If you think there's any value in seeing his Russian friend (who seems a fine chap by his dossier), go ahead
